MAY 13, 2022, New York City - Her Justice, which provides free legal services to women living in poverty in New York City, convened industry leaders from across the city to honor Suzanne Gibbons of Davidson Kempner Capital Management LP and Alan W. Kornberg of Paul, Weiss, Rifkind, Wharton & Garrison LLP at their Annual Photography Auction & Benefit on Tuesday, May 10, 2022 at Pier Sixty at Chelsea Piers.

A record-breaking celebration, including a silent photography auction and mission exhibit, the event raised over $3.25 million for the New York City organization. The funds raised include contributions from Diamond-level sponsors Davidson Kempner Capital Management LP; Fried, Frank, Harris, Shriver & Jacobson LLP; Paul, Weiss, Rifkind, Wharton & Garrison LP; and PJT Partners as well as over 160 additional sponsors.

"Together, with the support of our extraordinary community, Her Justice harnesses the strength of the private sector to empower women and children across New York City," said Amy Barasch, Executive Director at Her Justice. "Our clients rely on the civil justice system for access to basic rights like financial security and freedom from abuse – these dollars raised will enable Her Justice to rise to the added challenges of the past two years, and ensure our clients do not have to navigate complex legal systems alone."

"The impact Her Justice makes providing free legal services to women in poverty in New York City is remarkable," said Suzanne Gibbons, Managing Member, Davidson Kempner Capital Management LP. "I extend a huge thank you to the staff that keeps this organization running so efficiently, the law firms that provide pro bono services, and the financial sponsors who have made this year's Benefit a success."

"I am deeply grateful to be honored by Her Justice, an organization that transforms the lives of thousands of women each year," said Alan W. Kornberg, Partner and Co-chair of the Restructuring Department, Paul, Weiss, Rifkind, Wharton & Garrison LLP. "It is with great pride that I join many dedicated leaders and lawyers from across our City and the restructuring community in standing together with Her Justice as a pillar of hope for some of the most vulnerable women and children in New York."

"These past two years have been particularly tough for Her Justice clients. I have been so impressed by the organization's ability to shift during this time," said Steve Zelin, Chair of the Her Justice Board of Directors and Partner at PJT Partners, "One thing that has stood out for me is how our community has rallied around Her Justice to make sure the services we provide do not falter in this time of incredible strain."

The Benefit Honorees led a group of standout Honorary Co-Chairs who are dedicated to supporting Her Justice and were vital in cultivating the dollars raised. The Honorary Co-Chairs included: Daniel Aronson, Evercore; Jamie Baird, PJT Partners; Corinne Ball, Esq., Jones Day; Marc Beilinson, Omni Agent Solutions; Donald S. Bernstein, Esq., Davis Polk & Wardwell LLP; Lauren Bilzin, Davidson Kempner Capital Management LP; Howard Blaustein, Prime Clerk, A Kroll Business; Jennifer Box, KKR; Allan S.
