

Her Justice stands with women living in poverty in New York City by recruiting and mentoring volunteer lawyers to provide free legal help to address individual and systemic legal barriers.

The Her Justice Corporate Partner Program

The Her Justice Corporate Partner Program recognizes those firms who make an annual commitment to support the work of Her Justice by providing both unrestricted financial support and pro bono engagement.

By leveraging the human talent and resources of private firms, Her Justice serves thousands of women and children living in poverty in New York City every year, providing critical, free legal services and advocating for important change at the policy level.

Our Corporate Partners are the cornerstone of our network of support. Partnering with Her Justice demonstrates a commitment to providing access to justice for those most vulnerable in our own community.

Corporate Partner Commitments

Our Corporate Partners agree to:

- Make an annual unrestricted donation of $15,000 to Her Justice
- Appoint a partner or senior executive to serve as the organization's Corporate Partner Representative, a liaison to Her Justice who will secure financial support, encourage volunteer engagement, and help broaden awareness of our work within the firm
