THE HER JUSTICE NATURALIZATION PROGRAM

"To have such close client contact, to have someone actually relying upon you for help, advocacy and advice is an incredible personal and professional growth experience. Her Justice challenged us to be better lawyers, and with our client and her daughter's future at stake, we were forced to rise to the challenge."

- Volunteer Attorney at Simpson Thacher & Bartlett

Her Justice recruits, trains and mentors teams of volunteer attorneys and legal assistants at major law firms to provide crucial immigration assistance to battered women and their children. Volunteers provide life-altering assistance to some of the most at-risk individuals living in New York City through the Her Justice Naturalization Program.

The Role of Her Justice¹

Staff Attorneys at Her Justice conduct trainings for volunteers handling Naturalization cases. We require all members of the volunteer teams from our law firms – supervising partners, associates, and legal assistants alike – to attend a live training or to view a pre-recorded training and to review the Her Justice Naturalization Training Manual. CLE credit is provided to attorneys for the trainings (either live or video), as well as for their actual pro bono representation of clients.

After conflict checks have been conducted, Her Justice forwards client case files, which include case descriptions and copies of clients' documents, to participating firms. Where possible, this is done prior to the training. This enables new legal teams to process the information they receive at our CLE training with their clients' specific circumstances in mind.

Her Justice Staff Attorneys provide ongoing mentoring to the volunteer legal team. Each case is assigned a Her Justice mentor. Mentors review, edit and approve all applications and communications before they are filed with USCIS. This is an evolving area of practice, with frequent changes in administrative practice and law, so our commitment is to pass along relevant information about substantive and procedural changes at USCIS to teams handling these immigration law cases to help obtain the best outcome for clients.

The Role of the Volunteer Attorney

Her Justice connects female-identified and gender non-conforming individuals who are eligible to apply for Naturalization with pro bono attorneys who are eager to learn a new area of law and to make a positive difference for clients who desire to become US Citizens. Many of these individuals have gained their Lawful Permanent Residency because they are or have been victims of domestic violence or other crimes. These immigration cases are non-litigated and done on submission to USCIS. The volunteer attorneys represent individual clients on petitions for Naturalization enabling them to become US Citizens.

It is likely that the attorney-client relationship will last at least 12-18 months², until USCIS has adjudicated the case and the petitioner naturalizes. Although the Naturalization process may take over 18 months, the total number of active hours spent on these cases is most likely 10-15 hours.

Law students enrolled in an accredited law school, or a law graduate who is not yet admitted to the bar, may represent an immigration client referred by Her Justice as part of the legal team under the direct supervision of an admitted attorney from the law firm. At all times, an admitted attorney from the law firm must be the client's attorney of record and must review and sign all papers.

The legal team will handle:

- Conducting in-depth interviews with their clients³ to establish her eligibility for Naturalization;
- Preparing and filing initial applications with USCIS for a client;
- Accompanying the client to an interview at USCIS; and
- Securing US Citizenship for the client.

USING THE HER JUSTICE TRAINING MANUAL

This manual, in conjunction with the Her Justice Naturalization Training is designed to give you:

- Sample completed forms, applications, and cover letters;
- A basic knowledge of immigration law and procedure as it applies to filing a Naturalization Application to USCIS on behalf of your client;
- The ability to counsel your client on what to expect throughout the Naturalization process; and
- Relevant policy memoranda from USCIS and a list of resources so that you can easily conduct research or obtain the answer to your question(s).

This manual will not make you an expert. However, it will allow you to effectively represent a client in a Naturalization petition so that she may acquire US Citizenship. In most instances, the manual will be able to answer basic questions you may have about how to complete USCIS immigration forms, what to do next in your case, and what evidence to include to support your client's petition. The manual is intended to serve as a desk reference on how to prepare a Naturalization petition. We hope this manual is helpful to you in your representation of a client through Her Justice. If you have any feedback or suggestions for improvement, please contact Jnanayoga Gross, Immigration Paralegal, at JGross@herjustice.org or 646-442-1194.

² This time frame is according to the latest dates given by USCIS for Naturalization adjudications.

³ Many of the clients are victims of domestic violence or crime therefore special sensitivity is required to represent an immigrant client who has been the victim. Refer your client to counseling, where appropriate, after discussing the issues with your mentor. See Section on "What Do I Need To Know About Domestic Violence And Representing Battered Immigrant Women And Children Safely And Ethically?"

As you read this manual, keep in mind the following:

- Immigration forms should be downloaded through the USCIS website at www.uscis.gov. The forms included in this manual may not be the most current version. USCIS is constantly revising immigration forms and you should use the most current version posted on their website. The USCIS website is also a valuable resource for general information and policy memoranda.
- Working with a survivor of domestic violence requires patience and understanding. Understanding how you feel as a result of working with a battered woman is just as important as understanding how she felt during her relationship with her batterer and after. The articles and information in this manual will help you prepare for your client meetings and inform you of concerns specific to domestic violence survivors. Please make sure to read this section of the manual carefully and to consult with your Her Justice mentor where appropriate.

Your Her Justice mentor is here to help. It is critical to keep in regular contact with your Her Justice mentor and to allow them time to review your client's petition prior to filing. Your mentor can help spot additional issues and provide necessary guidance throughout the case.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS: WORKING WITH HER JUSTICE CLIENTS

Thank you for taking a pro bono case through Her Justice. We hope the following frequently asked questions will help guide your representation and troubleshoot some common challenges in pro bono work. Our manuals provide additional information and guidance specific to each type of case in our program. Of course, your mentor is always available to answer questions about legal strategy and client expectations as your case progresses.

1. What is my firm's relationship with Her Justice for the purpose of this matter?

Her Justice is a consultant to the firm. We provide mentoring, training, sample documents, and will also review any written materials that you produce in the case. When we put a client on our waitlist, we explain to her that she will be represented directly by a firm, and that we will act as consultants to her lawyers. We assert attorney-client privilege over our direct communications with clients and over our communications with our pro bono teams.

We recommend that you explain this relationship to your client at your initial meeting so that she can be reminded of our relationship with the firm, and understand that the firm should be her main point of contact going forward. We recommend that Her Justice be described in your retainer agreement as an outside consultant with whom you may have privileged and confidential discussions.

2. This is my first pro bono client and I don't feel like I understand her perspective on the case. What should I do?

Our clients come from a wide range of backgrounds, religions, ethnicities, nationalities, faces, and family structures. Some clients have personal customs and traditions that may not be familiar to you. Educate yourself on cultural sensitivity so that your client feels comfortable from the outset of the representation and trusts you with sensitive information. Reserve judgment and check your expectations. It's possible your client was involved in an arranged marriage and lacks what seems like basic information about her husband. It's possible that your client is not comfortable telling a male attorney about sexual abuse. It's possible that what sounds like a standard visitation schedule will not be acceptable to your client because it interferes with strict religious observance. Your client may have strong opinions about how her children dress or wear their hair, and may ask that these specifications be part of a settlement agreement. The Her Justice attorney who assessed the client and helped her prepare for the pro bono representation will be able to education the team and provide context about the client's background so that you can provide culturally competent legal assistance. If your mentor did not assess the client, your mentor will put you in touch with the attorney who did. In some cases, Her Justice also may connect you to culturally-specific organizations that do advocacy work for specific populations in New York City.

3. What is required if my client and I do not speak the same languages?

We are extremely grateful to firms that take cases for non-English speakers, who are even less likely to have access to justice than our similarly-situated English-speaking clients.

Think creatively about who can act as an interpreter for your client. Firm employees—attorneys and support staff—may be able to act as an interpreter for phone calls and short meetings even if they are not actively representing the client. For longer, more complex meetings, or for languages that are less common in a law firm setting, a professional interpreter may be required. Some interpreters offer their services at a discounted rate for pro bono cases, if you ask. Confirm with your client that she understands the interpreter's dialect at the outset of your meeting. Do not use children, friends, or family members for interpretation. At the Family and Supreme Courts, arrange in advance for a court interpreter for languages other than Spanish. When using an interpreter, make eye contact with the client, rather than the interpreter, pausing frequently to allow for the most accurate interpretation.

4. What special considerations are there for working with domestic violence survivors?

All of our immigration clients and the vast majority of our family/matrimonial clients self-identify as survivors of domestic violence. We encourage all pro bono attorneys to watch our domestic violence training video for guidance on effective and compassionate representation for domestic violence survivors. Your mentor can send you a private link to view this training at your convenience from your desk.

5. What special considerations are there for working with transgender clients?

Our transgender clients face additional hurdles in seeking access to justice. It is important to make your office a safe and welcoming environment for transgender clients. When you arrange for an initial in-person meeting, find out if your client's photo ID matches her name and gender. If not, make arrangements with your security desk so that the client can avoid embarrassment and confusion upon arrival. If possible, greet your client in the lobby so that you can go through security and come upstairs together. Use a conference room that is convenient to a gender-neutral or all-gender restroom, if possible, but of course, transgender clients should be free to use nongendered facilities. Confirm your client's name and pronoun, and use these both in conversation and in all legal documents. Her Justice has relationships with several legal organizations devoted exclusively to LGBTQ issues and would be happy to connect you with these partners for further information and guidance.

6. What special considerations are there for working with clients with physical or cognitive disabilities?

A good guiding principle is not to assume that your client needs help. Offer assistance only if she appears to need it, and ask how best to assist if she asks for help. Your mentor at Her Justice can provide more specific advice, including a detailed guide from a peer organization with expertise in this area. Please speak to your mentor if this is an issue in your representation.

7. I am having trouble getting in contact my client. What should I do?

We emphasize to clients that your time is valuable, and that they must be responsive to their pro bono attorney's calls, and respectful of attorney time. It is important for attorneys, however, to remember that Her Justice clients typically fall within 200% of the federal poverty line (approximately $30,000 for a household of one) and are juggling multiple urgent needs. Many of our clients have pre-paid cell phones, and are unable to call you back or listen to your voicemail if they have run out of minutes. Many of our clients work at jobs that do not allow them to have regular phone access during the day. Many are not computer literate or do not have the technology at home or work to check email regularly. Most of our clients are survivors of domestic violence, and their ability to call your office safely may be compromised at times.

Call the client a couple of times (if it is safe to do so), rather than waiting for her to call you back. When you meet with the client for the first time, ask if she has multiple phone numbers or an alternate contact in the event that there is an urgent issue in the case and you are having trouble reaching her (for example, a trusted family member). If it safe to do so, after several attempts at contact by phone and email, send the client a hard copy letter asking for her to contact your office upon receipt. Contact your Her Justice mentor for more strategies for effective communication with your client.

8. My client has been late to meetings or hasn't shown up to court or my office. What should I do?

We emphasize to clients that they should call you if they need to change or cancel their appointment, or if they are running late. It is helpful if the pro bono attorneys understand that it is not unusual for a client to have trouble keeping an appointment. It could be that the client has a new, more urgent issue to attend to (an eviction, a health crisis, or a safety issue). It could be that the client does not have money for a roundtrip subway ride, cannot afford to miss work, or is afraid to ask for time off for the appointment, out of embarrassment or fear of losing her job.

Consider whether the firm could pay for a car service or a Metrocard for the client if transportation is a barrier to effective representation. Plan to meet up early on the day of a court appearance, taking into account the likelihood of the client needing extra time to get to court from home with everything she needs and childcare in place. At your first meeting with the client, ask her about her work and childcare schedules so you can select meeting dates and times that are easy to keep. If applicable, for example, if your case will involve court appearances, tell the client that she should expect to meet with you or attend court during business hours, and that she will have to ask for time off from work or arrange for childcare in order to do so. These expectations should be clear at the outset of the case so that the client can plan and does not feel surprised or overwhelmed later on. We thank you for your patience and compassion, and encourage you to use your time with your client efficiently, to keep the number of meetings manageable.

9. My client wants me to help with a new case or another issue. What should I tell her?

Remember that your firm is retained only for a specific case, and your retainer agreement should state the scope of the representation simply and specifically. For Family Court cases, we recommend that you specify the docket number for your case, as you are not obligated to represent the client on future violation and modification petitions. We do not recommend that the firm take on additional cases for a client without consulting with Her Justice or another legal services organization, if the new case is unrelated to family, matrimonial, or immigration work.

Be consistent with the client and maintain appropriate boundaries, remembering that you are her attorney for a discreet issue, and cannot provide social work services or unrelated legal services (for more information on these services, see Question 9, below). If the client has new legal issues, contact Her Justice for a new intake for the client. It is possible that Her Justice can provide advice or an appropriate referral. If the new issue is one that we would consider for our waitlist, we can discuss whether the firm would like to expand its representation to include the new case (for example, the client now has an order of protection case in addition to a child support case).

10. I think my client needs to talk to a counselor or social worker. What should I do?

The litigation process can be very stressful and upsetting for clients. Many clients have underlying mental health concerns, such as depression or post-traumatic stress disorder, or would benefit from extra support in making decisions about the trajectory of their cases. Contact your mentor about connecting your client to the in-house social worker at Her Justice. If your client is a survivor of domestic violence or elder abuse, she also qualifies for services at a New York City Family Justice Center (FJC). Your mentor can assist with making a referral. Many clients already have case managers assigned at their local FJC.

11. How can get I get up to speed on the substantive law that affects my case?

Our manuals provide an overview of the relevant law for each type of case that we mentor. In addition, we offer live and video trainings on every type of case, plus some additional advanced topics such as child support enforcement and division of pensions in a litigated divorce. It is imperative that you attend or view the relevant training before you start the case so that you are competent to answer basic questions that your client will have at the first meeting. Your mentor is available to answer your substantive law questions and provide guidance on any research you need to conduct, once you have viewed the training and reviewed our manual.

12. I have a trial coming up in the Family or Supreme Court and I don't know where to begin. What should I do?

Getting courtroom experience as the lead attorney is one reason that pro bono attorneys and leadership at their firms, seek out our cases. Our staff attorneys have personally litigated many cases, but we are primarily your consultants on substantive law, client management, and case strategy, rather than trial advocacy skills. For general litigation practice skills (for example, understanding hearsay, entering exhibits into evidence, and conducting cross examination), remember that your firm's litigation department has in-house expertise and resources in addition to the knowledge we can provide.

13. I am going on secondment, parental or other extended leave, or leaving the firm—what happens to my client? Can Her Justice take the case back?

The client has retained your firm, not any individual attorney, for pro bono representation. Her Justice is a probono-first organization. With a relatively small staff of attorneys, we are able to mentor thousands of cases a year because the firms represent the clients directly, aided by our training and mentoring. Because of this leverage model, usually it is not possible for Her Justice to take the case back.

Although it is possible to take on a client as an attorney working alone, it is best if the client has two associates in addition to a supervising partner. This will allow each attorney to accommodate very busy times for billable work, and allows for seamless transition of cases in the event that an attorney leaves the firm for any reason. If you are leaving, it is imperative that you find a replacement attorney at the firm before you go. The client should meet her new attorney with you, ideally in person, before you leave, and the new attorney should take possession of all files and materials. Contact Her Justice right away if you are leaving the firm for any significant period of time. Ultimately, when a pro bono attorney is no longer available to the client, it is the responsibility of the firm to restaff the case.

14. My case has changed, and my firm has concerns about handling it. What should I do?

If your firm has taken an uncontested divorce that has become contested, and the firm has a policy against probono contested matrimonial work, speak with your mentor immediately about your options.

If your contested divorce or support case requires the firm to send discovery requests to a billable client, such as a bank or other financial institution, speak with your mentor about any concerns that the firm may have. In some cases, the information may be sought without a subpoena, and sometimes a relationship partner is called upon to let the billable client know that this is a pro bono matter that is not related to the billable work.

READ ME FIRST!

There are many things to consider before submitting your application for United States citizenship. The list below reflects some of the issues that could prevent you from naturalizing. This guide contains detailed information about the warnings in the list below. Be sure to speak with an authorized immigration law expert if:

- You have ever been arrested or had any contact with law enforcement.
- You have ever lied to government officials, immigration officers, or officers at a consulate abroad.
- You married someone only to get your green card.
- You have ever failed to pay spouse or child support.
- You are a male who lived in the United States at any time between your 18th and 26th birthdays and did not register with the Selective Service.
- Since becoming a permanent resident, you have spent a lot of time outside of the United States, especially if trips lasted more than six months at one time.
- Since becoming a permanent resident, you failed to file an income tax return when required to do so.
- One of your parents became a U.S. citizen before you turned 18 years old. You may already be a U.S. citizen.

As part of the application process, U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) will review your entire immigration and criminal history. This may be risky for some people. If you have any questions about whether you are eligible to apply for citizenship be sure to speak with an authorized immigration law expert.

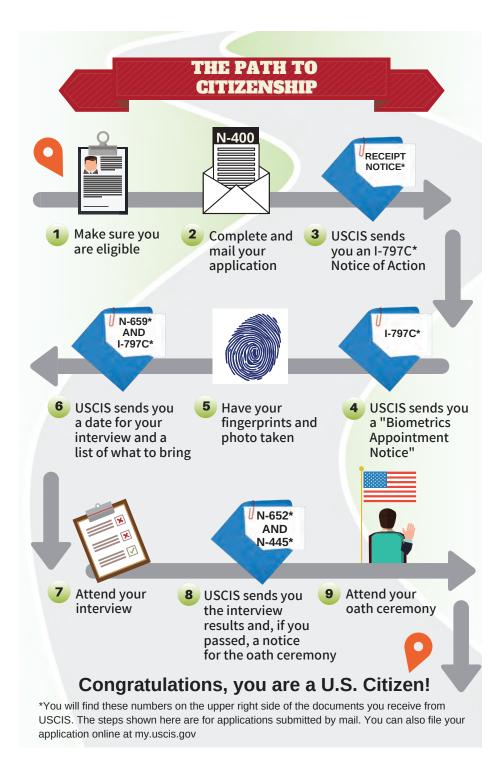

A. STEPS ON THE PATH TO NATURALIZATION

Naturalization is the process where a person born outside the United States voluntarily becomes a U.S. citizen. There are five basic steps to becoming a naturalized U.S. citizen:

- 1. Meet the eligibility requirements
- 2. Complete and file Form N-400
- 3. Have fingerprints and photos taken
- 4. Pass interview and citizenship test
- 5. Attend a swearing-in ceremony

Citizenship Now! can help determine if you meet the eligibility requirements and can assist you with completing your application. We can also help you complete a fee waiver or reduced fee application if you qualify.

This guide also contains information about the next steps after we assist you with preparing your application, such as materials to help you prepare for the interview and to study for the civics test.

B. BASIC ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

^{*} Students may apply for naturalization either where they go to school or where their family lives if they are still financially dependent on their parents.

1. Continuous Residence Requirement

You must show you have continuously resided in the United States as a lawful permanent resident (LPR), for at least five years before naturalizing. If you are married to a U.S. citizen, you can naturalize three years after becoming a permanent resident if you are married to and living with the same U.S. citizen for the entire three-year period. Your spouse must have been a U.S. citizen for the three-year period as well. (Special rules apply to active military members and some veterans.) Continuous residence does not mean you must have been in the United States without ever leaving during that time. It means that during the five or three-year period all of the following were true:

- You did not abandon your permanent resident status.
- You maintained your primary place of residence in the United States.
- You did not stay outside of the United States for one continuous year (365 consecutive days) or more. An absence of one year in most cases automatically breaks continuous residence.

2. Physical Presence Requirement

You must be physically present in the United States for half of the five or three-year period before applying to become a citizen. You will need to list your trips outside the country and count the total number of days you have spent outside the United States during the five or three-year time period. That means the total number of days you spent outside the United States cannot be more than 913 days in the last five years (or 548 days in the last three years). There are some exceptions.

3. Good Moral Character Requirement

To naturalize, you must prove that you are a person of good moral character. If you have a criminal record, failed to pay required spouse or child support, have had problems with drugs or alcohol, been involved in illegal gambling or prostitution, failed to pay your taxes, willfully failed to register with the Selective Service, or have lied to immigration officials to gain immigration benefits, it's possible you will not meet the good moral character requirement.

Parking tickets, disorderly conduct convictions, and many other minor offenses usually will not prevent you from proving you have good moral character. USCIS may argue you do not have good moral character if you have repeated convictions for minor violations.

If you ever lied to get public benefits, it is possible you will not be able to show good moral character. However, you can naturalize even if you have been receiving means-tested public benefits, as long as you were entitled to receive them. This includes benefits such as food stamps or Medicaid, which are available only to individuals whose income is below a certain level.

a. Criminal Activity

If you have ever been arrested, charged or convicted of a crime (even abroad), you need to get information about your criminal record before you apply to became a citizen. Go to the Clerk of the court in the county/borough/city where you were arrested/charged and get a Certified Court Disposition for every arrest or charge. A Certified Court Disposition is an official court document that shows the current status of a case or its final outcome.

Ordinary traffic stops or tickets will not prevent you from naturalizing. You do not need to submit evidence of these minor offenses unless a traffic incident was alcohol or drug related or caused serious injury to another person. You do not need to submit documentation for traffic fines and incidents that did not involve an actual arrest if the only penalty was a fine of less than $500 and did not result in points on your driver's license.

If you have been convicted of certain serious crimes called aggravated felonies, you may be permanently barred (prohibited) from naturalizing. Some crimes may even cause immigration authorities to remove you from the United States, take away your green card or may have other serious consequences. Speak to an authorized immigration law expert for more information.

b. Child Support

If you purposely fail to meet your child support obligations, USCIS will find that you are not a person of good moral character and may deny your application for naturalization. Child support refers to financial support you provide to your children when they do not live with you, even if they live abroad.

c. Selective Service Registration

Males living in the United States who are between 18 and 26 years old must register with the Selective Service System. This includes undocumented men, permanent residents, and citizens. The requirement ends once the applicant reaches the age of 26. The registration requirement does not apply to men living in the United States in lawful nonimmigrant status, such as F-1 student visas or H-1B temporary worker visas.

If you did not register with the Selective Service System and you are not 26 yet, you must register before you file your naturalization application.

You can get a Selective Service registration form at your local post office or you can register online at www.sss.gov.

If you are 31 or older at the time you file your N-400 application (29 or older for the spouse of a U.S. citizen), you can naturalize even if you failed to register. Even though form N-400 says you must submit documentation about your failure to register, it is not required from applicants who have already turned 31 (or 29 if you are married to a U.S. citizen).

If you are between the ages of 26 and 31 years old (or 26 and 29 years old and married to a U.S. citizen) you can naturalize even if you failed to register. You must prove that your failure to register was not "knowing and willful" by submitting a letter explaining why you did not register. If you are claiming that you were unaware of your obligation to register, you must also submit a Status Information Letter from Selective Service stating that the agency never contacted you. You can submit the explanation letter and the Status Information Letter either with the naturalization application or at the time of the naturalization interview. Instructions for requesting the Status Information Letter are online at www.sss.gov/instructions.html.

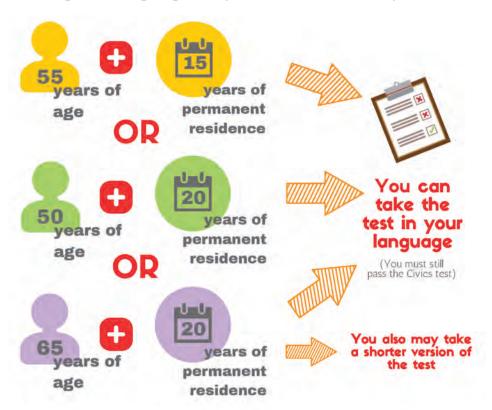

How to Check if You Are Registered with the Selective Service

There are two ways to check if you are registered with the Selective Service System and to obtain your registration date and number. Call 888-655-1825 or check the website at www.sss.gov. Have your date of birth and Social Security number available. To speak to a Selective Service representative, call 847-688-6888. You will need to include this information on your N-400 application.

4. Civic Knowledge Requirement

At your interview you must show a basic understanding of U.S. history and government (civics). This means you must answer six out of ten questions correctly from a list of 100 questions provided by USCIS.

5. English Language Requirement and Exemptions

You must have a basic knowledge of English in order to become a U.S. citizen. However, certain applicants may be exempt from the English language requirement because of their age and length of time they have been a permanent resident. You are exempt from the English language requirement if at the time you are filing your application you have been a permanent resident for at least 20 years and you are 50 years of age or older (the 50/20 rule.) If you have been a permanent resident for at least 15 years and you are 55 years of age or older (the 55/15 rule), you are also exempt from the English language requirement. If you are exempt, you must still pass the civic knowledge test, but USCIS will test you in your native language. For a list of the vocabulary to prepare for the reading and writing sections of the test, go to section I. Study Materials, pages 54 and 55 of this guide.

If you are 65 years of age or older and you have been a permanent resident for at least 20 years (the 65/20 rule) at the time you submit your application, you may take the simplified civics test (and have your interview in the language of your choice). You will need to answer six out of ten questions from a list of 20 questions. For a list of the 20 civics questions, go to section I. Study Materials, pages 52-53 of this guide.

6. Medical Exemptions

If you cannot learn or remember due to an impairment or disability, you can apply for an exemption from the English and/or civics test. Your licensed medical doctor, psychiatrist or clinical psychologist must properly and completely fill out Form N-648, Medical Certification for Disability Exceptions, with a clear and detailed explanation of the disability and the inability to take the English and/or civics test. This completed form is submitted with your Form N-400, Application for Naturalization. USCIS will decide whether to approve or deny your request at the interview.

If you need an accommodation such as a sign language interpreter, large print materials, or extra time for the exam, be sure to note this on your application.

7. Age and Willingness to Take the Oath

The final step in becoming a U.S. citizen is taking the oath of allegiance to the United States Constitution and form of government.

If you are unable to understand or are unwilling to take the oath because of a disability or medical condition, you can apply for a waiver of the oath requirement. A request for a waiver of the oath can be submitted along with the N-648 form, but a detailed written evaluation completed by your medical doctor or clinical psychologist in addition to other documentation may be needed. The evaluation must explain why and how you are unable to understand the Oath of Allegiance. You must also have a court appointed guardian who can take the oath on your behalf.

a. Allegiance to the U.S. Government Requirement

It is not until you take the Oath of Allegiance that you actually become a citizen. Part of the oath is giving up allegiance to other countries. Some countries will still allow you to keep your citizenship after you take the oath (see section C. Dual Citizenship of this guide.) To check your country's rules on dual citizenship, contact your country's embassy or consulate in the United States.

You must also demonstrate your allegiance to the United States by being willing to either bear arms on behalf of the United States or perform some form of military service or civilian work of national importance. There are some exceptions to the oath requirement for individuals with deeply-held beliefs against military service.

b. Exceptions to the Requirements: Veterans and Those in Military Service

If you are a U.S. military veteran or currently serving in the Army, Navy, Air Force, Marine Corps, Coast Guard, or other qualifying member of the Armed Forces, you may be able to naturalize without meeting the normal residence and physical presence requirements. You are also exempt from paying the application and biometrics (fingerprinting) fees.

Individuals presently serving in the U.S. military during a time of war qualify for naturalization regardless of immigration status. Go to www. uscis.gov/military for more information.

C. DUAL CITIZENSHIP

Special thanks to the volunteers at Bloomberg L.P. for researching and updating these lists. These lists last revised on October 2017.

The countries below have laws on dual citizenship (being a citizen of two countries at the same time). Many countries have restrictions regarding losing or acquiring additional citizenship. Please note not all countries are listed below. For more information about losing your present citizenship when you naturalize as a U.S. citizen, speak with a representative of your government. Even if your country allows dual citizenship you are required by U.S. law to use a U.S. passport to leave and re-enter the United States after becoming a U.S. citizen. The countries marked with an asterisk (*) have restrictions or exceptions.

D.REQUESTING A FEE WAIVER OR REDUCED FEE FOR YOUR APPLICATION

D. REQUESTING A FEE WAIVER OR REDUCED FEE FOR YOUR APPLICATION

1. Requesting a Fee Waiver for Your Application

When you file your naturalization application, you must submit the entire fee of $725 or you must submit a fee waiver request. The filing fee is $640 for applicants age 75 years of age or older. If you are unable to pay the naturalization filing fee, you can request USCIS waive it. To qualify for a fee waiver, you must prove your inability to pay. If you apply for a fee waiver and USCIS rejects your request, USCIS will send your application back to you instructing you to submit the filing fee or to submit further proof that you are unable to pay the required processing fee. To request a fee waiver, file USCIS Form I-912.

You can show you qualify for a fee waiver based on three main criteria:

- 1. Your Household Income is 150% or less than the Poverty Guideline. USCIS uses Form I-912P, HHS Poverty Guidelines, which is updated every year, to review your income. If the combined income of everyone in your household falls below the guidelines listed in the chart on Form I-912P, then you qualify for a fee waiver. You will need to provide proof of income by submitting federal tax returns or other proof of income that demonstrates your inability to pay the N-400 filing fee.
- 2. You Receive a Means-Tested Public Benefit. If you are receiving a means-tested benefit and want to request a fee waiver for your N-400, you must submit a letter proving you currently receive the stated benefit along with the Form I-912. The benefit letter must be dated be in English and contain all of the following:
 - Name of agency awarding the benefit
 - Name of person receiving the benefit
 - Date the benefit was awarded
 - Date the benefit will expire (if applicable)
 - Proof that you are currently receiving the benefit
- 3. You Have a Financial Hardship that Prevents You From Paying the Filing Fee. USCIS will take into consideration unexpected circumstances such as emergency medical bills, natural disasters, homelessness or sudden unemployment. See section 3 of this chapter for the documents that will help prove you qualify for a fee waiver based on hardship.

Most Common Means-Tested Public Benefits

- Supplemental Security Income (SSI): The Social Security Administration pays SSI benefits to people who are blind or disabled, 65 years of age or older and have limited income and resources.
- Medicaid: Medicaid provides free public health insurance to low-income individuals.
- SNAP (Food Stamps): The Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP) provides a card to pay for food. The monthly amount on the card depends on household income.
- Cash Assistance: Called Temporary Assistance for Needy Families (TANF) in most states, this is a short-term cash benefit for families with children.
- Housing Choice Voucher Program: Sometimes called Section 8 or Public Housing, this program provides rental assistance to low-income families.

Benefits that Are Not Means-Tested

Certain benefits are not means-tested because there is no income or assets test required to receive them. These include:

- Social Security Disability Insurance (SSDI): SSDI is a cash benefit paid to people with long-term disabilities who are not yet at retirement age.
- Medicare: Medicare is a nationwide health insurance program for people age 65 or older. Some people under 65 with certain disabilities or medical conditions may qualify as well. Generally, Medicare helps with cost of health care, but it does not cover all expenses or the cost of most long-term care.

2. Requesting a Reduced Fee for Your Application

If you do not qualify for a full fee waiver based on the three criteria previously mentioned (receipt of means-tested benefits, income at or below 150% of the poverty guidelines, or a financial hardship situation) you may qualify for a reduced fee. The reduced fee for the Form N-400 is $320 along with an $85 biometrics (fingerprinting) fee, for a total of $405. You must send a personal check or money order for the reduced fee with your naturalization application. Applicants age 75 or older do not have to pay the $85 biometrics fee. They should submit a check or money order for $320 only. To request a reduced fee for the processing of your naturalization application, file USCIS Form I-942.

You can show you qualify for a reduced fee if your household income is between 150% and 200% of the poverty guidelines. USCIS uses Form I-942P, Income Guidelines for Reduced Fees, to determine if your household income falls between the amounts set by the poverty guidelines. If you qualify for the reduced fee, you provide proof of income by submitting federal tax returns. If for some reason you did not file taxes, you can submit other proof of income such as paystubs or a letter from your employer on business letterhead stating the amount of wages paid to you.

3. Documents to Help Determine if You Qualify for a Fee Waiver or Reduced Fee

To help determine if you qualify for a reduced fee, a fee waiver based on income, or a fee waiver based on financial hardship, bring the documents below to your appointment with an authorized immigration law expert:

	Copy of IRS federal tax returns for the most recent tax year (for each person in the household who works and files taxes) with any attached schedules (i.e. W2s and 1099s)
	Copies of paystubs for the past 1-2 months or a statement from your employer on business letterhead showing salary or wages paid
	Copies of child support letter or spousal support (alimony)
	Copy of receipt of Unemployment Benefits
	Copy of receipt of Workers Compensation
П	Social Security Administration Benefit Verification Letter

☐ Copies of all recent utility bills (gas, electric, internet cable, phone)
☐ Copy of lease, rental agreement or mortgage payments
☐ Copy of last 3 bank statements for each checking and/or savings account
☐ Proof of all other expenses (including medical bills insurance, loans and credit card payments)

E.SUBMITTING YOUR FORM N-400 APPLICATION

E. SUBMITTING YOUR FORM N-400 APPLICATION

1. Here is a checklist of what you must mail to USCIS with you Form N-400:
☐ Form N-400: Answer all questions and sign and date Part 13.
☐ Additional pages: Include these for work and residence history, trips, prior marriages, children or for other questions that need a continuation sheet.
□ Proof of your permanent resident status: Copy of front and back of your Green Card or copy of I-551 stamp in your passport indicating your A-Number. If your green card is expired or will expire within six months of filing your naturalization application, you should renew your green card before your naturalization interview. For more information about the process for renewing your green card, speak with an authorized immigration law expert.
□ Check or Money Order for $725*: Made payable to "U.S. Department of Homeland Security." Write your name and A-Number on the front of the check or money order. You may also pay by credit card by submitting a completed and signed Form G-1450 Authorization for Credit Card Transactions. Note: Applicants 75 and older are exempt from paying the $85* biometric fee and must appear in person to have their photos taken at the Application Support

2. Mail your complete application and documents using the Postal Service to the USCIS address with jurisdiction over where you live. Go to www.uscis.gov or call 800-375-5283 to find out what jurisdiction you are in.

- 3. Remember to make and keep a copy of everything you send to USCIS including the application itself, your postal receipts, and receipts for the money order, if you sent one.
- *All fees listed as of September 2018. For updated fees, check www.uscis.gov/form

To check on how long USCIS expects to take to make a decision on your application, you can check the USCIS website for N-400 processing times. Do this by visiting www.uscis.gov and clicking on "Check Processing Times." Choose "N-400, Application for Naturalization" from the "Forms" drop down menu. Next, choose your local Field Office then click the button that says "Get Processing Time."

F.AFTER SUBMITTING YOUR APPLICATION: NEXT STEPS

F. AFTER SUBMITTING YOUR APPLICATION: NEXT STEPS

1. Receipt Notice

Within three to four weeks of mailing your application, you should get a receipt notice in the mail from USCIS verifying they have received your application. The receipt notice serves as confirmation that your application is in process and that your payment is accepted or your fee waiver approved. Keep this receipt as proof USCIS received your application. If you do not receive a notice, call USCIS customer service at: 800-375-5283.

2. Biometrics (Fingerprinting) Appointment

Shortly after getting your receipt notice, you will receive a "biometrics" appointment notice to have your fingerprints and photographs taken. You must go to this appointment with a photo ID and your appointment notice. If you fail to go to this appointment, USCIS will deny your application. Applicants 75 years or older will not be fingerprinted but still must appear in person to the designated Application Support Center (ASC) to have their photograph taken. Only a USCIS designated Application Support Center (ASC) can do fingerprinting for naturalization purposes.

3. Interview Notice

About two to three months after your fingerprints are taken you will be scheduled for your naturalization interview. Again, you will receive form I-797C Notice of Action in the mail with the time, date and location of your scheduled interview with a USCIS officer. Be sure to bring all the documents USCIS requests along with your naturalization interview appointment notice (originals and copies).

4. The USCIS Interview

At the interview, a USCIS officer will review your N-400 application to make sure you meet the qualifications for citizenship, and will test you on civics and on your ability to understand, speak, read and write basic English (unless you meet certain exemptions). Please see section I. Study Materials for additional information and test preparation materials.

At the start of your interview, the USCIS officer will ask you to stand, raise your right hand and swear under oath that all the information you are about to give is true. After you have taken this oath, the USCIS officer will review the documents you are required to bring with you, such as your tax returns for the last five (or three) years and your application to make sure that the statements you made in it are accurate. See the green box to find out what to bring to your interview. You should disclose any changes that happened since you submitted your application, such as marriage, travel abroad, or change in employment. The officer will update your file based on the information you provide.

Your ability to speak and understand English is determined during this interview based on the way you answer the questions the USCIS officer asks you. The officer will also assess your English reading and writing ability and civics knowledge, during the interview. You will be asked to read up to three sentences in English and to write up to three dictated sentences in English. You will be tested orally with up to ten questions on civics. The questions are chosen randomly by the USCIS computer system from a list of 100 questions. (See section I. Study Materials to find the 100 civics questions for the naturalization test).

Applicants will be asked 10 questions and must answer six correctly. As discussed earlier, some older, long-time residents and some disabled residents are not required to read, write and speak English in order to become U.S. citizens but may have to take the civics portion of the test in their native language. The USCIS Citizenship Resource Center (www.uscis.gov/citizenship) provides an overview of the naturalization interview and test. Other materials are available in English, Spanish, Chinese, Arabic, Korean, Tagalog and Vietnamase. CUNY Citizenship Now! also lists the questions on our website. Check www.cuny.edu/citizenshipnow for test resources.

What to Bring to the Interview:

When you receive your USCIS interview notice you will also receive a list of documents you must bring with you to your interview. Some of the documents to bring are your green card, all current and expired passports, and copies of your tax returns for the past five (or three) years. Depending on your individual case you may need to bring other documents listed, such as original Certificates of Disposition for any arrests. Bring an extra copy of all documents in the notice in case the USCIS officer requests to keep them on file.

- ✓ Males between the ages of 18 and 31 should bring proof of registration with the Selective Service System. If you did not register when you were required to do so, males between the ages of 18 and 31 should also bring a Status Information Letter with them to the interview. Instructions for requesting the Status Information Letter are online at: www.sss.gov/instructions.html.
- ✓ If you are unable to take the full oath of allegiance because of religious beliefs, you should bring a letter from your religious institution explaining how your beliefs prevent you from taking the oath. Individuals who have other deeplyheld beliefs that prevent them from taking the full oath, should provide a written affidavit.

a. What If I Fail the English or Civics Test?

If you fail the English or civics tests you will be scheduled for another appointment to retake the test within 90 days. You will not have to pay another fee or resubmit your fee waiver. If you fail the test a second time, your application will be denied. There is no limit to how often you can re-apply for citizenship. Keep in mind that each time you apply, you will be required to pay the filing fee or submit a new fee waiver request.

5. After the Interview

The USCIS officer will usually decide your case at the interview. The law requires USCIS to make a decision within 120 days of the date of your interview. If you passed, you will be scheduled for the final step, the swearing-in (or oath) ceremony, about one to two months later. If you did not pass, the officer will give you a paper explaining the reason. You may have to send in more documentation or take the test again. If USCIS approves your naturalization application during the interview, the USCIS officer may give you the choice of waiting in the office to be given a swearing-in ceremony notice or having USCIS mail the notice for you to appear at a later date.

At the time of the swearing-in ceremony, you will take the Oath of Allegiance to the United States and become a naturalized citizen. If you requested a name change, a Federal Judge or Magistrate will swear you in. If you did not request a name change, a USCIS officer may swear you in. If your name was changed through marriage or divorce, a USCIS officer may swear you in. Your Certificate of Naturalization will be issued in your new name. You become a U.S. citizen when you complete the swearing-in ceremony and receive your Certificate of Naturalization.

6. Appealing a USCIS Denial of Naturalization

If USCIS denies your application, the USCIS officer must inform you that you have 30 days to request a hearing before an immigration officer. A request for a hearing is made by filing Form N-336 along with the filing fee, or with a fee waiver if you qualify. If you are not successful at that hearing, you may seek a review of the decision in federal court.

*For updated fees, check www.uscis.gov/forms

7. How to Handle Changes during the Naturalization Process

a. Address Changes

If you think your address will change while you have an application pending with USCIS, use a post office box or list the mailing address of a friend or relative on the form N-400 to make sure you receive all notices from USCIS. If you move after filing your application, you must update your address by completing all of the following steps:

- If you change your address online with USCIS you do not need to file a paper form. If you file a paper change of address form (AR-11,) you should also report your change of address over the phone by calling 800-375-5283. To do this you will need your receipt number. There is no fee required to file an AR-11.
- Inform the post office you have moved. You can do this online at www.usps.com or by visiting your local post office.

What to do if you don't have your receipt number:

- If you have not yet received a receipt notice with a receipt number for your application, you can still submit a change of address.
- If you paid for your application by check, contact your bank for a copy of the check image. On the back of the check image is your 13-digit USCIS receipt number. If you paid for your application by money order, you can change your address without a receipt number, by calling the National Customer Service Center at 800-375-5283.

G. NOW THAT YOU ARE A U.S. CITIZEN

Congratulations on becoming a U.S. citizen! Below is a list of some important next steps you can take.

Now That You Are a U.S. Citizen:

Update your Social Security Records

Apply for a U.S. Passport

Obtain a certificate of Citizenship for your Children

5 Serve on a Jury

1. Register to Vote

Voter registration varies from state to state, but usually in order to register to vote you must be: a U.S. citizen, at least 18-years-old on election day, a resident of the state where you plan to vote, and not be convicted of felony or be on parole for committing a felony, and not claim the right to vote in another state, borough, county or city. To learn how to register to vote in your state, visit the website for the National Association of Latino Elected and Appointed Officials (NALEO) at http://www.naleo.org/vote.

2. Update Your Social Security Records

After you become a U.S. citizen, you should update your Social Security records. You will keep the same social security number after you become a U.S. citizen. To find your local Social Security office, call 1-800-772-1213 or visit www.socialsecurity.gov.

3. Apply for a U.S. Passport

You can learn about how to apply for a U.S. passport from the U.S. Department of State by visiting www.travel.state.gov or by calling the National Passport Information Center (NPIC) at 1-877-487-2778. You may also ask for a paper application at your local post office. Routine processing of the U.S. passport is approximately six weeks from the time you apply. If you travel outside the United States you can also receive assistance from a U.S. consulate overseas.

4. Obtain a Certificate of Citizenship for Your Child

Children under 18 may become U.S. citizens on the day you naturalize. This is called derivative citizenship and is common when a parent naturalizes.

Under the current law, in order for a child who was born outside the United States to derive U.S. citizenship, one or both parents must be U.S. citizens. In addition, the child must also meet the following requirements: be unmarried and under 18 years of age; the child must be a lawful permanent resident (green card holder); the child must reside with the naturalized citizen parent(s) in the United States; and finally, the naturalized citizen parent(s) must have physical and legal custody of the minor child.

It does not matter in which order the requirements are met as long as they are all met before the child reaches her or his 18th birthday. The rules for derivative citizenship apply to biological children and to adopted children who meet the definition of "adopted child" under U.S. immigration law. Step-children who were not adopted cannot derive U.S. citizenship through a step-parent. Different rules apply to children born out of wedlock.

A child who derives U.S. citizenship becomes a U.S. citizen without needing to apply for citizenship through the process of naturalization. To have proof of his/her citizenship, the child can apply for a U.S.

passport through the U.S. Department of State or for a Certificate of Citizenship through the United States Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) by filling out the form N-600 and including the necessary supporting documents.

5. Jury Duty

The constitution of the United States guarantees defendants in criminal trials and people in civil trials the right to a trial by jury. A civic duty of U.S. citizens is to serve on a jury, which is a group of (usually 12) people who swear to give a true verdict (decision) in a legal case. In the American justice system, the judge determines the law to be applied in a case and the jury decides the guilt or innocence of the accused. The jury is supposed to represent a fair cross section of the community where the court is located. To find out information about jury service in your state, visit http://www.ncsc.org.

FAQ's: What happens after I file a petition with USCIS?

How will I know if the fee waiver request was approved?

- If the fee waiver was rejected, the entire application will be returned to you within about three weeks of submitting the filing to USCIS. If this happens, you should also receive form G-1054 "Fee Waiver Request Denial Letter" notifying you of the reason for the fee waiver denial. There is no appeal process. Speak to your Her Justice mentor about the next step, which is usually one of the following:
 - o Resubmit the fee waiver addressing the issues in the denial letter,
 - o The firm or the client pays the fee, or
 - Her Justice applies for a small grant to pay the fee.
- If the fee waiver was approved or the fee was paid, you will receive a receipt notice on form I-797C ("Notice of Action"). You will not get a separate fee waiver approval notice.

When will I get the receipt notice?

 The receipt notice(s) should arrive about three weeks after sending the application to USCIS, assuming the application was sent via Fedex or other courier service. If you do not receive a receipt notice within three weeks of submitting your case to USCIS, please alert your Her Justice mentor.

What information does the receipt notice contain?

- You will get a receipt notice for each application that was filed. If you used your address as the client's "safe address", you will receive two copies of the receipt notices for each application (an attorney copy and a client copy).
- The notice will contain a "receipt date" which is the date that USCIS officially accepted the filing. Make sure that the receipt date is before any applicable filing deadline. If it was not before the deadline, you will have the burden of proving (via trackable mail receipt) that USCIS received it and should have receipted it in before the deadline. If you believe you missed a deadline, speak to your Her Justice mentor immediately.

What should I do with the receipt notice?

- The receipt notice is a critical document in every immigration case. It is extremely important that you keep the receipt notice in the digital and hard copy file. You, or whomever else works on the case in the future, will need this notice to follow up on the case if there are any issues.
- Give your client her copy of the receipt notice(s).
- Send a pdf of the receipt notice(s) to your Her Justice mentor.
- For most cases, the receipt notice alone does not convey any immigration status on your client.
 However, for I-751 Petitions to Remove Conditions on Residence and I-485 Adjustment of Status for U Nonimmigrants, the receipt notice is the document that extends your client's lawful immigration status, including the right to work lawfully in the U.S. (and, for conditional permanent residents, the right to travel outside of the U.S. and return).
- For other types of immigration relief, the receipt notice may be used to apply for certain public assistance, including Medicaid. Note that this is very important if you filed both applications where the fee waiver was denied and applications that do not require a fee. In these cases, Her Justice recommends that the client use the receipt notice to apply for Medicaid and, assuming the client is approved for Medicaid, re-submit the fee waiver request on the basis of receipt of "means tested benefit". Speak to your Her Justice mentor about how to do this.

Can the receipt notice help me keep track of the progress of the case?

- Use the receipt number on the notice to create an electronic account on the USCIS website (www.uscis.gov). That way, you will receive an email any time USCIS takes any action on the case. If there were multiple applications filed, be sure to input the receipt numbers for all receipt notices.
- You can also periodically check on the status of the case by going to the USCIS website and clicking on "Check Case Status" using the receipt number.
- If you need to make a status inquiry with USCIS about the case through the Contact Center, the receipt number will be required.
- Note that some applications are covered by the Violence Against Women Act (VAWA) Confidentiality provisions (e.g., I-918 Petition for U Nonimmigrant Status, I-360 Self-Petition for Battered Spouse). Information about the status of those cases will not show up on the USCIS website or be accessible through the USCIS Contact Center. Speak to your Her Justice mentor about how to obtain information about the status of those cases.

How long will it take to get a decision on the case?

- Find out how long the case will take to be adjudicated (on average) by going to the USCIS website (www.uscis.gov) and clicking on "Check Processing Times". The drop-down menu will ask you to input the application form number (e.g., I-360, I-918, etc.) and the USCIS office where you sent the filing (e.g., Vermont Service Center, Texas Service Center).
 - You will see a time range for the average case processing time for that application.
 - If your receipt date is before the "Receipt date for a case inquiry", you can submit an "outside normal processing time" service request. Speak to your Her Justice mentor about how to do this.

What will happen after the receipt notice is issued?

- It depends on the type of case. Most cases require that the client and any derivative beneficiaries (e.g., children) who are age 14 or older and are present in the U.S. attend a "Biometrics" appointment to take fingerprints and photographs. This appointment will take place at a USCIS office called an "Application Support Center" (ASC). The location of the ASC will be determined based on the address listed for the client in the application.
- It is important that the client and derivative beneficiaries attend this appointment promptly. A lawyer does not need to attend with the client.
- The client should bring valid, government-issued identification and an original Biometrics scheduling notice.
- If the client/ derivatives cannot attend at the required time, it may be possible to appear at the ASC a few days before or after the appointment and ask for biometrics to be done at that time.

If it is necessary to reschedule the appointment, please follow the directions on the Biometrics appointment notice.

What is a Prima Facie Determination Notice?

- For I-360 VAWA Self-Petitions, USCIS may issue a "Prima Facie Determination" notice about two months after the case is filed. This notice means that USCIS has determined that the petitioner meets the general requirements "at first review". The notice does not guarantee any particular outcome in the case. USCIS could still issue a "Request for Evidence" (RFE) or deny the case.
- When the notice arrives, notify your client and ask if she is interested in applying for public assistance benefits. If so, please notify your Her Justice mentor for further assistance.

Frequently Asked Questions

1. How can I become a U.S. citizen?

A

You may become a U.S. citizen (1) by birth or (2) through naturalization.

Q

2. Who is born a U.S. citizen?

Generally, people are born U.S. citizens if they are born in the United States or if they are born to U.S. citizens:

(1) If you were born in the United States:

Normally you were a U.S. citizen at birth. (Including, in most cases, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, the territories of Guam and the U.S. Virgin Islands, and after November 4, 1986, the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands),

(2) If you were born abroad to TWO U.S. citizens:

And at least one of your parents lived in the United States at some point in his or her life, then in most cases you are a U.S. citizen.

(3) If you were born abroad to ONE U.S. citizen:

In most cases, you are a U.S. citizen if all of the following are true:

- One of your parents was a U.S. citizen when you were born;
- Your citizen parent lived at least 5 years in the United States before you were born; and
- At least 2 of those 5 years in the United States were after your citizen parent's 14th birthday.²

Your record of birth abroad, if registered with a U.S. consulate or embassy, is proof of your citizenship. You may also apply for a passport to have your citizenship recognized. If you need additional proof of your citizenship, you may file an "Application for Certificate of Citizenship" (Form N-600) with USCIS to get a Certificate of Citizenship. Call the USCIS Forms Line at 1-800-870-3676 to request Form N-600, or download the form at www.uscis.gov.

¹The exception is persons who were born not subject to the jurisdiction of the United States, such as children of foreign diplomats.

²If you were born before November 14, 1986, you are a citizen if your U.S. citizen parent lived in the United States for at least 10 years and 5 of those years in the United States were after your citizen parent's 14th birthday.

3. How do I become a naturalized citizen?

If you are not a U.S. citizen by birth or did not acquire/derive U.S. citizenship automatically after birth, you may still be eligible to become a citizen through the naturalization process. Eligible persons use the "Application for Naturalization" (Form N-400) to apply for naturalization.

Persons who acquired citizenship from parent(s) while under 18 years of age use the "Application for Certificate of Citizenship" (Form N-600) to document their citizenship. Qualified children who reside abroad use the "Application for Citizenship and Issuance of Certificate under Section 322" (Form N-600K) to document their naturalization. You may call the USCIS Forms Line at 1-800-870-3676 to request a Form N-400, N-600, or N-600K; or you may download all of these forms at www.uscis.gov.

4. What are the requirements for naturalization?

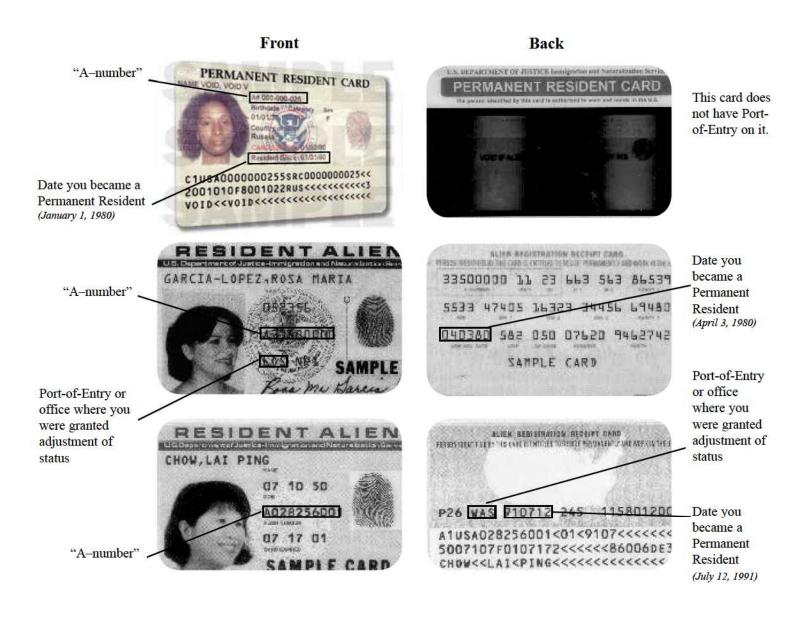

Please see Section 4, "Who Is Eligible For Naturalization?," beginning on page 17 for more details on the eligibility requirements for naturalization. You should also complete the Eligibility Worksheet in the back of this Guide to help you find out if you meet the eligibility requirements.

5. When does my time as a Permanent Resident begin?

Your time as a Permanent Resident begins on the date you were granted permanent resident status. This date is on your Permanent Resident Card (formerly known as an Alien Registration Card or "Green Card"). The sample cards on this page show where you can find important information such as the date your Permanent Residence began.

NOTE: The "A-number" is the Alien Registration Number

6. What form do I use to file for naturalization?

You should use an "Application for Naturalization" (Form N-400). Call the USCIS Forms Line at 1-800-870-3676 to request Form N-400. You may also download the form at www.uscis.gov.

7. If I have been convicted of a crime but my record has been expunged, do I need to write that on my application or tell a USCIS officer?

Yes. You should always be honest with USCIS about all:

- Arrests (even if you were not charged or convicted);
- Convictions (even if your record was cleared or expunged);
- Crimes you have committed for which you were not arrested or convicted; and
- Any countervailing evidence, or evidence in your favor concerning the circumstances of your arrests, and/or convictions or offenses that you would like USCIS to consider.

Even if you have committed a minor crime, USCIS may deny your application if you do not tell the USCIS officer about the incident. Note that unless a traffic incident was alcohol or drug related, you do not need to submit documentation for traffic fines and incidents that did not involve an actual arrest if the only penalty was a fine less than $500 and/or points on your driver's license.

8. Where do I file my naturalization application?

You should send your completed "Application for Naturalization" (Form N-400) to the appropriate USCIS Lockbox Facility that serves your area, see page 34 for detailed instructions. Also see page 34 for separate filing instructions for members of the Armed Forces and the spouses of active members of the Armed Forces. Remember to make a copy of your application. Do not send original documents with your application unless the Document Checklist included with this Guide states that an original is required. Always make copies of documents that you send to USCIS.

9. Will USCIS help me, or make accommodations for me, if I have a disability?

USCIS will make every effort to make reasonable accommodations for applicants with disabilities who need modifications to the naturalization process in order to demonstrate their eligibility. For example, if you use a wheelchair, we will make sure you can be fingerprinted, photographed, interviewed, and sworn in at a location that is wheelchair accessible. If you are hearing impaired, the officer conducting your interview will speak loudly and slowly, or we will work with you to arrange for an American sign language interpreter. If you require an American sign language interpreter at the oath ceremony, please indicate that in your Form N-400 in the section where you are asked if you need an accommodation for a disability. If you use a service animal such as a guide dog, your animal may come with you to your interview and oath ceremony.

We are continuing to work on better ways to make the naturalization process easier for applicants with disabilities. If you know in advance that you will need some kind of accommodation, write a letter explaining what you will need and send it to the USCIS district office that will interview you after you receive your interview notice. If you have a physical or developmental disability or a mental impairment so severe that you cannot acquire or demonstrate the required knowledge of English and civics, you may be eligible for an exemption of those requirements. To request an exemption, you must file a "Medical Certification for Disability Exceptions" (Form N-648). See page 26 of this Guide for more information.

10. Where is my local USCIS office?

To find the local USCIS office that serves your area, please use the field office locator at www.uscis.gov.

11. What is the fee for processing an application?*

The current fee for processing a naturalization application can be found on the single page titled "Current Naturalization Fees" in the back of this Guide. If you are under 75 years old, you must also pay a fee to have your biometrics taken.

12. How can I pay my application fee?

You must send the fee with your application. Pay the fee with a check or money order drawn on a U.S. bank payable to the Department of Homeland Security. Do not use the initials DHS or USDHS. Do Not Send Cash.

You may also pay using a credit card. There is no additional fee when you do so. The N-400 is the only form that you can pay for by credit card using the G-1450, Authorization for Credit Card Transaction. Check www.uscis.gov for more specific information.

Residents of Guam should make the fee payable to the "Treasurer, Guam," and residents of the U.S. Virgin Islands should make the fee payable to the "Commissioner of Finance of the Virgin Islands."

Fees for biometric services, which include your photograph and signature, are separate from your application fee. Remember that your application fee is not refundable even if you withdraw your application or if your case is denied.

- * If you are applying for naturalization based on your own service in the Armed Forces of the United States, no filing fee is required. Please see "Naturalization Information for Military Personnel" (Form M-599) for more information.
-  If you are 75 years or older, or if you are filing on the basis of your service in the Armed Forces of the United States, or if you are filing from abroad, do not send the biometric services fee for fingerprinting with your application.

13. How long will it take to become naturalized?

The time it takes to be naturalized varies by location. USCIS is continuing to modernize and improve the naturalization process and would like to decrease the time it takes to an average of 6 months after the Form N-400 is filed.

14. Where can I be fingerprinted and photographed?

After we receive your application, we will tell you where you should get biometrics taken. For more information about biometrics, see page 35.

15. How do I find out the status of my naturalization application?

You may check the status of your naturalization application by visiting www.uscis.gov or by calling Customer Service at 1-800-375-5283 (TTY: 1-800-767-1833).

16. What if I cannot go to my scheduled interview?

It is very important not to miss your interview. If you have to miss your interview, you should write the office where your interview is to be conducted as soon as possible and ask to have your interview rescheduled. Rescheduling an interview may add several months to the naturalization process, so make all attempts to attend your original interview date.

If you miss your scheduled interview without notifying USCIS, we will "administratively close" your case. If we close your case because you missed your interview, we will notify you at your last address of record. Unless you contact us to schedule a new interview within 1 year after we close your case, we will deny your application.

17. What do I do if my address has changed?

It is important that USCIS has your most current address. If we do not, you may not receive important information from us. For example, we may not be able to notify you about the date and time of your interview or about additional documents you may need to send or bring.

If you move after filing your "Application for Naturalization" (Form N-400), call Customer Service at 1-800-375-5283 (TTY: 1-800-767-1833) to change your address on your pending Form N-400. Every time you move, you are required by law to inform USCIS of your new address. To meet this legal requirement, you must file an "Alien's Change of Address Card" (Form AR-11), in addition to calling Customer Service. You must file the Form AR-11 within 10 days of your move. There is no fee to file this form. You should also notify the U.S. Postal Service of your new address to help ensure that any mail already on its way may be forwarded to you.

18. Can I change my name when I naturalize?

Congress did not give USCIS legal authority to change a person's name when that person naturalizes. Therefore, there are only two ways that USCIS can issue your Certificate of Naturalization under a new name:

- 1. If you present proof that you have already changed your name according to the legal requirements that apply to persons living in your State, USCIS can issue the Certificate of Naturalization with your new name. Such proof might include a marriage certificate or divorce decree showing that you changed your name when you married or divorced. It might also include some other State court order establishing that you changed your name.
- 2. If you are going to take the Oath of Allegiance at a Naturalization Ceremony that is held in Court, you may ask the Court to change your name. If the Court grants your request, your new name will appear on your Certificate of Naturalization.

19. If USCIS grants me naturalization, when will I become a citizen?

You become a citizen as soon as you take the Oath of Allegiance to the United States in a formal naturalization ceremony. In some places, you can choose to take the oath the same day as your interview. If that option is not available, or if you prefer a ceremony at a later date, USCIS will notify you of the ceremony date with a "Notice of Naturalization Oath Ceremony" (Form N-445).

20. What should I do if I cannot go to my oath ceremony?

If you cannot go to the oath ceremony, you should return the "Notice of Naturalization Oath Ceremony" (Form N-445) that you received to your local USCIS office. Include a letter saying why you cannot go to the ceremony. Make a copy of the notice and your letter before you send them to USCIS. Your local USCIS office will reschedule you and send you a new "Notice of Naturalization Oath Ceremony" (Form N-445) to tell you when your ceremony will be.

21. What can I do if USCIS denies my application?

If you think that USCIS was wrong to deny your naturalization application, you may request a hearing with an immigration officer. Your denial letter will explain how to request a hearing and will include the form you need. The form for filing an appeal is the "Request for Hearing on a Decision in Naturalization Proceedings under Section 336 of the INA" (Form N-336). You must file the form, including the correct fee, to USCIS within 30 days after you receive a denial letter.

If, after an appeal hearing with USCIS, you still believe you have been wrongly denied naturalization, you may file a petition for a new review of your application in U.S. District Court.

22. Can I reapply for naturalization if USCIS denies my application?

In many cases, you may reapply. If you reapply, you will need to complete and resubmit a new Form N-400 and pay the fee again. You will also need to have your biometrics taken again. If your application is denied, the denial letter should indicate the date you may reapply for citizenship.

If you are denied because you failed the English or civics test, you may reapply for naturalization as soon as you want. You should reapply whenever you believe you have learned enough English or civics to pass both tests.

23. What do I do if I lose my Certificate of Naturalization? What do I use as proof of citizenship if I do not have my certificate?

You may get a new Certificate of Naturalization by submitting an "Application for Replacement Naturalization/Citizenship Document" (Form N-565) to USCIS. You may request Form N-565 by calling the USCIS Forms Line (1-800-870-3676), or by downloading the form at www.uscis.gov. Submit this form with the appropriate fee to the Nebraska or Texas Service Center, depending on which Service Center has jurisdiction over your residence.

If you have one, you may use your U.S. passport as evidence of citizenship while you wait for a replacement certificate. It is strongly recommended that you apply for a passport as soon as you become a citizen.

Q

24. If I am a U.S. citizen, is my child a U.S. citizen?

A child who is born in the United States, or born abroad to a U.S. citizen(s) who lived in (or came to) the United States for the required period of time prior to the child's birth, is generally considered a U.S. citizen at birth.

A child who is:

- Born to a U.S. citizen who did not live in (or come to) the United States for the required period of time prior to the child's birth, or
- Born to one U.S. citizen parent and one alien parent or two alien parents who naturalize after the child's birth, or
- Adopted (stepchildren cannot derive or acquire citizenship through their stepparents) and is permanently residing in the United States can become a U.S. citizen by action of law on the date on which all of the following requirements have been met:
 - · The child was lawfully admitted for permanent residence*; and
 - Either parent was a United States citizen by birth or naturalization; and
 - · The child was still under 18 years of age; and
 - The child was not married; and

- The child was the parent's legitimate child or was legitimated by the parent before the child's 16th birthday (children born out of wedlock who were not legitimated before their 16th birthday do not derive United States citizenship through their father); and
- If adopted, the child met the requirements of section 101(b)(1)(E) or (F) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA) and has had a full and final adoption; and
- The child was residing in the United States in the legal custody of the U.S. citizen parent (this includes joint custody); and
- The child was residing in the United States in the physical custody of the U.S. citizen parent.

If you and your child meet all of these requirements, you may obtain a U.S. passport for the child as evidence of citizenship. If the child needs further evidence of citizenship, you may submit an "Application for Certificate of Citizenship" (Form N-600) to USCIS to obtain a Certificate of Citizenship. (NOTE: A child who meets these requirements before his or her 18th birthday may obtain a passport or Certificate of Citizenship at any time, even after he or she turns 18.)

*NOTE – Children who immigrated under the "IR-3" or "IR-4" categories must have had an immigrant petition filed on their behalf before their 16th birthday; see answers to Question 26. All adoptions for any other type of immigration benefit, including naturalization, must be completed by the child's 16th birthday, with one exception: A child adopted while under the age of 18 years by the same parents who adopted a natural sibling who met the usual requirements.

NOTE – The "one U.S. citizen parent" rule applies only to children who first fulfilled the requirements for automatic citizenship (other than at birth abroad) on or after February 27, 2001. In order to qualify for automatic citizenship (other than at birth abroad) on or before February 26, 2001, both of the child's parents must have been United States citizens either at birth or through naturalization—both parents if the child had two parents; the surviving parent if a parent had died; the parent with legal custody if the parents were divorced or legally separated; or the mother only, if the child had been born out of wedlock and the child's paternity had not been established by legitimation.

25. If I am a U.S. citizen, but my child does not meet the requirements listed above, can I still apply for citizenship for my child?

A child who is regularly residing in the United States can become a citizen of the United States only by meeting the requirements listed in the answer to Question 25. If a child regularly resides in the United States and is not a lawful permanent resident, he or she cannot acquire citizenship automatically until he or she is granted lawful permanent residence. If a child who has been lawfully admitted for permanent residence fails to qualify for citizenship under the provisions of law, he or she may apply for naturalization after reaching 18 years of age by filing Form N-400, provided that he or she has the required 5 years of lawful permanent residence.

U.S. citizens with children by birth or adoption (stepchildren do not qualify) who do not regularly reside in the United States, may apply for citizenship for such a child if all of the following conditions are met:

- The child is under 18 years of age; and
- The child is not married; and
- The child regularly resides outside the United States; and
- The child is temporarily present in the United States pursuant to a lawful admission and is maintaining such lawful status; and
- The child is in legal and physical custody of a parent who is a U.S. citizen; and
- The child is the U.S. citizen's legitimate child, or was legitimated before the child's 16th birthday (children born out of wedlock who were not legitimated before their 16th birthday may be eligible for this procedure through his or her mother); and
- If adopted, the child meets the requirements of section 101(b)(1)(E) or (F) of the INA and had a full and final adoption; and
- Either of the following is true:
 - The citizen parent has lived at least 5 years in the United States, and at least 2 of which were after the citizen parent's 14th birthday; or
 - If the child's citizen parent has not lived in the United States for at least 5 years, 2 of which were after that parent's 14th birthday, the citizen parent currently has a parent (the child's grandparent) who:
 - Is also a U.S. citizen; and
 - Lived in the United States for 5 years, at least 2 of which were after the citizen grandparent's 14th birthday; and
 - Is living or deceased at the time of the adjudication of the application and the taking of the oath.

If the foregoing conditions are met, the citizen parent can apply for citizenship and a Certificate of Citizenship on behalf of the child using an "Application for Citizenship and Issuance of a Certificate under Section 322" (Form N-600K). Both the citizen parent and the child must appear at an interview with a USCIS officer in the United States. The child must meet all of the required conditions at the time he or she takes the Oath of Allegiance. (NOTE: The oath may be waived if the child is too young to understand it.)

USCIS Updates Policy to Automatically Extend Green Cards for Naturalization Applicants

Release Date: 12/09/2022

Effective Dec. 12, 2022, U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) is updating the USCIS Policy Manual to allow USCIS to automatically extend the validity of Permanent Resident Cards (commonly called Green Cards) for lawful permanent residents who have applied for naturalization.

This update (PDF, 307.54 KB) is expected to help naturalization applicants who experience longer processing times, because they will receive an extension of lawful permanent resident (LPR) status and may not need to file Form I-90, Application to Replace Permanent Resident Card (Green Card). LPRs who properly file Form N-400, Application for Naturalization, may receive this extension without regard to whether they filed Form I-90. USCIS will update the language on Form N-400 receipt notices to extend Green Cards for up to 24 months for these applicants. The receipt notice can be presented with the expired Green Card as evidence of continued status as well as identity and employment authorization under List A of Employment Eligibility Verification (Form I-9), if presented before the expiration of the 24-month extension period provided in the notice.

Prior to this change, under USCIS policy, naturalization applicants who did not apply for naturalization at least six months before their Green Card expiration date needed to file Form I-90, Application to Replace Permanent Resident Card (Green Card), to maintain proper documentation of their lawful status. Applicants who applied for naturalization at least six months prior to their Green Card expiration were eligible to receive an Alien Documentation, Identification, and Telecommunications (ADIT) stamp in their passport, which served as temporary evidence of their LPR status. This policy was based on the processing goal of 180 days or six months for Form N-400s, which would make filing Form I-90 unnecessary for applicants who filed at least six months before their Green Card expiration date. This policy update recognizes USCIS' current processing times, while improving flexibility and efficiency by reducing the number of ADIT stamp appointments in field offices and the number of Form I-90s filed, which allows for these resources to be focused on other immigration benefit adjudications.

The extension will apply to all applicants who file Form N-400 on or after Dec. 12, 2022. LPRs who filed for naturalization prior to Dec. 12 will not receive a Form N-400 receipt notice with the extension. If their Green Card expires, they generally must still file Form I-90 or receive an ADIT stamp in their passport, in order to maintain valid evidence of their lawful permanent resident status. Lawful permanent residents who lose their Green Card generally must still file Form I-90, even if they have applied for naturalization and received the automatic extension under this updated policy. This is because noncitizens must carry within their personal possession proof of registration, such as the Green Card and any evidence of extensions or may be subject to criminal prosecution under INA 264(e). Applicants who require an ADIT stamp may request an appointment at a USCIS Field Office by contacting the USCIS Contact Center.

Visit the Policy Manual Feedback page to comment on this update. For more information, visit our Replace Your Green Card page. For questions specific to employment, please see I-9 Central.

USCIS FORMS: WARNING

The forms contained in this manual are for instructional and educational purposes only. They are not necessarily the most up to date forms. USCIS forms change periodically. If you do not file the current edition of the form, the filing will be rejected by USCIS, potentially causing a missed deadline and malpractice. It is critical that you confirm that you are using the current edition of the relevant form by following the steps below. You should do this both before the client signs the form and also before you mail the form to USCIS:

- 1. Go to www.uscis.gov/ forms. Find the form number that you are looking for.
- 2. Go to the webpage for that form:

3. Scroll down to where it says "Form Details" - "Edition Date":

4. Check the bottom left corner of the form you are filing (not the top right corner where it says "expires") and make sure that it matches the Edition Date on the webpage. If so, your form is the current version and you are ready to file. If not, you must download the current edition and execute that one instead:

Notice to Naturalization Applicants

Thank you for submitting Form N-400, Application for Naturalization, to U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS). USCIS developed this notice to inform you what to bring to your naturalization interview. It is important to bring the original and a photocopy of the applicable items listed below. Any document in a foreign language must be accompanied by an English language translation. The translator must certify that he or she is competent to translate and that the translation is accurate.

What to Bring to Your Interview

At the time of your scheduled interview, you are required to present the following documentation to the USCIS Officer:

- 1. Your interview appointment notice (NOTE: You must report to the USCIS office at the date and time on your appointment notice. If you are late for your appointment, USCIS may need to reschedule your interview to a later date);
- 2. Permanent Resident Card;
- 3. A state-issued form of identification such as a driver's license; and
- 4. All valid and expired passports and travel documents issued to you by any government that document your absences from the United States since becoming a permanent resident.

Other documentation you may need to bring with you to your interview, if applicable to your case, is listed below. Since this is a general check list and each case is unique, the USCIS Officer may request that you submit additional documentation to establish your eligibility for naturalization.

Marital Status -- Evidence of your current marital status, such as a marriage certificate, divorce or annulment decree, or death certificate of a former spouse.

Termination of Prior Marriages -- Evidence of the termination of all previous marriages for both you and your current spouse, such as divorce or annulment decrees or death certificates.

Filing as a Spouse of a U.S. Citizen -- If you are applying for naturalization on the basis of marriage to a U.S. citizen, bring proof that your spouse has been a U.S. citizen for at least 3 years at the time of filing for naturalization and proof that you and your spouse lived in marital union for at least 3 years at the time of filing for naturalization.

Filing as a Spouse of a U.S. Citizen Who is Regularly Stationed Abroad -- Applicants who have U.S. citizen spouses who are regularly stationed abroad under qualifying employment or contract with entities described in section 319(b) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (INA) may be eligible to file for naturalization immediately after obtaining permanent resident status in the United States, and after satisfying certain other requirements for naturalization. If you are filing under section 319(b) of the INA, bring evidence of your U.S. citizen spouse's qualifying employment or contract abroad, such as an employment contract or travel orders, that include your name as a spouse, to establish that your spouse's employment abroad is scheduled to last for at least 1 year from the date you filed your Form N-400. You must also bring a written statement declaring your intent to reside abroad with your U.S. citizen spouse and to take up residence within the United States immediately after the termination of your citizen spouse's employment abroad.

Children -- Evidence that all of the children listed on your naturalization application are your children (e.g. birth certificate or adoption decree).

Support for Dependents -- If you have dependent children living apart from you, bring documentation to establish that you support each dependent child and that you have complied with child support obligations. If you have been ordered by a court to provide financial support for a spouse, ex-spouse, or children, bring copies of the court or government order that requires you to provide financial support and evidence that you have complied with the order (cancelled checks, money order receipts, a court or agency document showing child support payments, or evidence of wage garnishments).

Tax Returns -- Copies of income tax returns that you filed with the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) for the past 5 years (3 years if filing on the basis of marriage to a U.S. citizen). Although income tax returns are not required in every case, you are highly encouraged to bring several years of your tax returns, especially if you are filing for naturalization based on marriage to a U.S. citizen or have traveled outside the United States for a period that lasted for 6 months or more. If you do not have copies of your tax returns, you may bring an IRS Tax Transcript listing tax information for the past 5 years (3 years if filing on the basis of marriage to a U.S. citizen). To obtain a free IRS Tax Transcript visit the IRS web site at http://www.irs.gov/Individuals/Get-Transcript. You may also call the IRS at 1-800-908-9946 for assistance.

Overdue Taxes — If your payment(s) of any Federal, State, or local taxes are overdue, bring a signed agreement from that tax office showing that you have arranged to pay the taxes you owe, and documentation from the IRS, State or local tax office showing the current status of your payments. If you filed an application for an automatic extension of time to file with a Federal, State, or local tax office, you should bring proof of that filing and evidence of your payment of any taxes in accordance with the terms of that application.

Trips Outside the United States — If you have taken a trip(s) outside the United States for more than 6 months but less than 1 year, bring documentation to establish that you maintained continuous residence in the United States during your absence (e.g. evidence that you did not terminate your employment in the United States or obtain employment while abroad; documentation to show that your immediate family remained in the United States; and documentation to show that you retained full access to your place of residence in the United States). Additional documentation may be required as USCIS finds necessary.

Medical Disability Exception -- If you are requesting a medical exception to the English and civics testing requirements, bring a completed Form N-648, Medical Certification for Disability Exceptions if you have not already submitted a Form N-648.

Selective Service Registration — If you are a male between 18 and 26 years old, provide proof that you registered with the Selective Service. If you are 26 years of age or older, provide proof that you registered with the Selective Service if you were required to do so between 18 and 26 years of age. If you were required to register and did not, bring a written statement which explains why you did not register and a status information letter from the Selective Service. For more information about Selective Service registration, or to get proof that you registered, visit www.sss.gov or call 1-888-655-1825.

Arrests/Detainments/Convictions

- -- If you have ever been arrested or detained by any law enforcement officer for any reason and no charges were filed, bring an official, certified statement from the arresting agency or applicable court indicating that no charges were filed.
- -- If you have ever been arrested or detained by any law enforcement officer for any reason and charges were filed, bring an original or certified copy of the arrest record(s) and the complete court disposition for each incident (dismissal order, conviction record, or acquittal order).
- -- If you have been convicted or placed in an alternative sentencing program or rehabilitative program, bring the sentencing record for each incident and evidence that you completed your sentence such as probation record, parole record, or evidence that you completed an alternative or rehabilitative program. Copies must be certified copies from the issuing agency.
- -- If you have ever had any arrest or conviction vacated, set aside, sealed, expunged, or otherwise removed from your records, bring an original or certified copy of the court order vacating, setting aside, sealing, expunging, or otherwise removing the arrest or conviction. NOTE: Unless a traffic incident was alcohol or drug related or caused serious personal injury to another person, you do not need to submit documentation for traffic fines and incidents that did not involve an actual arrest if the only penalty was a fine of less than $500 and/or points on your driver's license. Records relating to a juvenile arrest do not need to be submitted unless USCIS determines the documents are required to evaluate your moral character.

Military Members -- If you have ever served in the U.S. military, or are applying based on military service under sections 328 or 329 of the INA, submit an original and certified Form N-426, Request for Certification of Military or Naval Service. If you are a veteran and were separated from the U.S. Armed Forces at the time of filing Form N-400, you may submit an uncertified Form N-426 only if you bring a photocopy of your DD Form 214 (or photocopies of multiple DD Form 214s) for all periods of service captured on Form N-426. National Guard members who file for naturalization after separation from service may submit NGB Form 22 in lieu of Form N-426.
