

Her Justice stands with women living in poverty in New York City by recruiting and mentoring volunteer lawyers to provide free legal help to address individual and systemic legal barriers.

The Her Justice Corporate Partner Program

The Her Justice Corporate Partner Program recognizes those firms who make an annual commitment to support the work of Her Justice by providing both unrestricted financial support and pro bono engagement.

By leveraging the human talent and resources of private firms, Her Justice serves thousands of women and children living in poverty in New York City every year, providing critical, free legal services and advocating for important change at the policy level.

Our Corporate Partners are the cornerstone of our network of support. Partnering with Her Justice demonstrates a commitment to providing access to justice for those most vulnerable in our own community.

Corporate Partner Commitments

Our Corporate Partners agree to:

- Make an annual unrestricted donation of $15,000 to Her Justice
- Appoint a partner or senior executive to serve as the organization's Corporate Partner Representative, a liaison to Her Justice who will secure financial support, encourage volunteer engagement, and help broaden awareness of our work within the firm

Benefits of Corporate Partnership

Her Justice Summer Associate Program: Provide Hands-On Legal Experience to Summer Associates

Through the Her Justice Summer Associate Program (SAP), Summer Associates at Corporate Partner law firms gain hands-on legal experience in litigated and non-litigated cases. Trained intensively and then mentored by the Her Justice legal team, Summer Associates are assigned clients, build attorney-client relationships, draft and file pleadings, motions, affidavits and immigration petitions, negotiate with opposing counsel, interact with court personnel, and develop critical legal skills and confidence.

Her Justice Clinic Program: Engage a Corporate Client and Associates in Pro Bono Work

By hosting a Her Justice Clinic, our Corporate Partner law firms have an opportunity to engage a corporate client and associates in short-term, high-impact pro bono work. Through the half-day clinic, they will work directly with clients and prepare initial documents ready to be filed by the end of the session. It is a convenient and powerful opportunity to meet your clients, initiate cases, and have immediate access to the mentoring skills and assistance provided by subject matter expert attorneys from Her Justice who will be with you during the clinic.

Corporate clients participating in the Clinic Program are encouraged to make a donation to Her Justice to support the training and mentorship their staff receives.

In addition, our Corporate Partners are invited to attend the Annual Corporate Partner Town Hall, have priority access to our most sought-after pro bono opportunities, and are recognized for their partnership in various ways throughout the year.

Priority Access to Select Pro Bono Opportunities

- Priority case placement and access to non-litigated divorce and immigration matters
- Exclusive access to case placement on trafficking matters through our Trafficking Survivors Resiliency Project, as well as exclusive access to other new initiatives as they are developed
- Exclusive opportunity to collaborate on policy research and advocacy initiatives
- The opportunity to develop an externship program

Recognition

Our Corporate Partners' support is publicized to a large audience of business and legal professionals.

- Listing on the Her Justice website, in our Annual Report, and in our portfolio of materials distributed to current and potential donors and volunteers
- Special recognition of outstanding involvement in our quarterly newsletter and on social media
